Boston Tea Party

(Bicentennial Series)

Four stamps, each a design entity, combine to complete the scene of 1773 when outraged colonists dumped chests of tea into Boston harbor in protest of the English-imposed tax. This continues the series that marks the Bicentennial of the American Revolution. The British Parliament voted out parliament for the Boston Tea Party by passing what Americans called the Intolerable Acts. This made revolution inevitable.

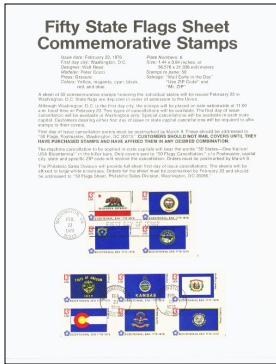

First day cancellation requests should be sent to "Boston Tea Party Stamp, Postmaster, Boston, MA 02108," enclosing the proper return address, which is 24¢ for the block of four, with request postmarked no later than July 4.

Over 100 million copies of this block may be obtained by sending a detailed address stamp to: Philatelic Sales Unit, Washington, DC 20565.
